U. S. MUSTERING-OFFICE.

Lieut.-Col. Nichols, the successor of Col. Sackett, took command of this Department yesterday morning. Col. S. leaves in a few days, and will report to Gen. McClellan, pursuant to orders. INSPECTION OF THE WARREN RIFLES.

This regiment was inspected at Camp Burnside, Red Honse, Harlem, on Saturday last, by Major Alleock of the United States Army, and made a very creditable appearance. The regiment mustered 468 present and 93 on furlough and detached service. It is not seven weeks since the first man was mustered into the service. Their success is commendable con-

A. Whiting Engine No. 9.

After the closing of the pells at the Engine-Houses, the baxes containing the ballots were brought to Firemen's Hall where they were canvassed. The result could not be accretioned until a late bour, but the indications were that the seven candidates first named above were the successful ones.

THE NAWTOWN RAILROAD,—The motion to dissolve the injunction restraining the Newtown Railroad Campany from laying their tracks in this city was argued before the General Term of the Supreme Court yesterday. B. D.
Field, esq. appeared on behalf of the Company and in favor of removing the injunction, and G. T. Jeaks, esq., for the spplicants. One of the chief grounds relied upon for sustaining the injunction was that the road, as laid down on the map filed by the Company, only extends from its Brooklyn termination
the extreme boundary of Kings County, and does not extend into Queens County at all, which is held to be an evasion of the law. The act authorizes them to construct their read from Newtown in Queens County to Brooklyn.
The Company, on the other hand, contend that is is their intestion to complete the road to the Brooklyn line this season, and extend it to the limits next year. The papers were submitted to the Court.

SUPREME COURT, GENERAL TERM .- The General is not seven weeks since the first man was mustered into the service. Their success is commendable considering they have not received ald from either public or private sources. After the inspection had taken place a collation was served at the officers quarters, and toasts and speeches were made in honor of the occasion. The Colonel of this regiment is George H. Biddle, esq., a gentleman of experience and ability.
